A FAITHFUL GUARD.

Policeman Watches for a Man Who Is Already in Jail.

Officer Jeffries, of the police force, told a good one on himself today. The police this morning set out to catch a negro wife beater who was said to be heavily armed. They were bent on catching him and went after him four to one. Chief Scott and Officer Jeffries and Pearce of the police force, and Detective Greer, of the Southern, composed the party and when the negro was located they surrounded the house. Officer Jeffries was assigned to a vacant lot in the rear of the house, and Chief Scott and Mr.
Greer stationed themselves on either side, while Officer Pearce went in to perform the more daring feat of making the arrest. The latter officer found his man who meekly surrendered and walked to jail as quietly as could have been wished. The other officers failed to tell Mr. Jeffries who was not in view of the front of the house, of the quiet arrest, and he kept on his careful watch. Finally his patience was worn out and he went to the house to ascertain the trouble. Learning that the negro had been arrested and carried away he went to the mayor's office, reaching there just as the other officers were returning from the jail.
The negro's name is John Campbell.

STOLE AN OVERCOAT.

When He Answers For This He Will Be Sent to Winston.

Henry Carter, alias Black Kid, alias any old name he can think of when he is obliged to give one, was arrested by Constable Dave Scott this morning charged with stealing an overcoat. That Carter is a mean negro need not be mentioned after the statement that he stole an overcoat such weather as this.
It is said that when he was arrested he would have overpowered the officer had not a citizen interfered.

But the plucky constable, when he once applied the bracelets, had no trouble in landing the prisoner behind the bars. He learned soon afterwards that Carter had a record in Winston and was wanted there to answer to a number of charges.

He will be turned over to the Winston authorities as soon as the overcoat matter is settled in a way satisfactory to the Guilford authorities.

Safe Crackers at Ore Hill.

It was learned here today that safe crackers visited Ore Hill, on the Atlantic & Yadkin road, last night. Two safes were blown open and four watches, one watch chain and other articles were stolen. Neither of the safes contained any money and only one of the watches was of any value.
It is not known whose stores the robbers entered.

Vance as a Mixer.

Zebulon B. Vance, or, as he was colloquially called, Zeb Vance, in whose honor a statue made by a New York man is to be erected in Raleigh, was one of the best known North Carolina politicians and the original mixer. A mixer in North Carolina politics is a man who is all things to all men who have votes. He was born in Buncombe county, well known in American political history, and he was county attorney before the civil war, a captain in the Confederate army, a governor of North Carolina and a United States senator. A political opponent who was once asked how and why it was that Vance could mix so easily with all kinds of voters, democrats and republicans, white men and colored men, city folks and country folks, Baptists and Methodists, old men and young men, rich and poor, Union and Confederate, responded rather tersely that the reason why Zeb Vance was able to mix so well was that all his mixing was done in North Carolina.—New York Sun.

The Chattanooga Strike.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Chattanooga, Tenn., August 9.—The employees of the electric street railway struck this morning. They have planned to apply the Cleveland boycott principle if the company does not yield under milder measures. The company have decided to not employ union men and will fill the places of the strikers with non-unionists.

Cotton.

90; November 94; December, 99.

Plattsburg, N. Y., August 9.—The president started out for a walk today, accompanied by Frank A. Munsey and S. V. White, of New York.
Secretary Root will return to Washington tonight. Mrs. McKinley continues to improve, and the president and his wife have now decided to remain two weeks longer at least, and probably until September 1.

M'ARTHUR LICKS THE ENEMY

Twenty American Boys Killed and Wounded.

THE ENEMY'S FORCE WAS 6,000

Ours, 4,000—Deadly Fire of the Filipinos—Americans Charged With the Bayonet.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, August 9.—One of the hardest fought battles of the war in the Philippines was fought this morning.
McArthur's force of four thousand advanced to a point five miles beyond San Fernando and defeated a Filipino force of six thousand. The rebels retreated leaving many dead and wounded. The American loss was twenty killed and wounded.

About four miles from San Fernando scouting parties encountered bands of the enemy, who retreated quickly.
A mile further the Filipino army was found entrenched and prepared for battle. They appeared well armed, and with plenty of ammunition. The American attack was vigorous and well directed by McArthur in person.
In the face of a deadly fire the men advanced steadily, then impetuously charged with the bayonet. The Filipinos fought hard but gave way and their line fell back.

THE ENEMY DRIVEN.

Washington, August 9.—Oils cables that McArthur drove the enemy five miles. An attack was ordered on the seventh but the rain did not permit the movement. The railway to the north of Manila was badly washed by the unprecedented floods during the last six weeks, beyond the ability of the insurgents to repair.

THE POPE'S CIRCULAR.

The Initiatory Step of the Czar Praised By His Holiness.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Rome, August 9.—The pope has prepared an encyclical dealing with the Hague peace conference. His Holiness praised the initiative of the czar and rejoices at the result. He believes the conference has laid the foundation of the great edifice of international peace and concludes by urging the sovereigns of the governments of the earth to further this work for humanity, to which he pledges anew all the forces of the Catholic churches.

BRITISH TROOPS TO NATAL.

Several Regiments to Be Sent "To Meet All Contingencies."

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, August 9.—When the house of Commons opened this morning Chamberlain announced that the government had decided to send several regiments of infantry to Natal. He said these troops were sent through the representations of the governor of Natal regarding the defenceless state of the colony. "The troops are sent to meet all contingencies," he continued. This significant statement was cheered.

THE INDUSTRIAL STAR

Southward Takes Its Way—Removal of Big Cotton Mill.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Biddeford, Me., August 9.—Arrangements are making for the removal of the Springvale Cotton Mills to Fort Valley, Ga. The plant has 10,500 spindles and 300 looms.

Dreyfus Court Martial.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Rennes, August 9.—The secret session of the Dreyfus court martial lasted until a quarter to twelve today.
General Chanoiné almost completed his part. The explanation of Dozier will take place tomorrow in the private session. The next public session will occur on Saturday. Dreyfus helped translate some of the German documents.

Dewey Naval Parade.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, August 9.—General Butterfield has suggested that the Dewey naval parade be upon Saturday, September 30, and the land parade on the Monday following. This will probably be adopted in order not to interfere with the America's cup races for which all boats are chartered.

Killed the Helmsman.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, August 9.—A dispatch from Folkston says that the gunboat Jeda sighted a French fishing vessel within British limits and fired a blank cartridge to warn her. This having no effect, a shot was fired which killed the helmsman.

Parliament Prorogued.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, August 9.—The Queen has prorogued the parliament. Her speech makes perfunctory reference to the Transvaal and commends the peace conference.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

here on the southbound local last evening.

resented Greensboro in High Point yesterday.

three extra lights for streets that are now in the dark.

J. P. Redding and Will L. Smith returned last night from a business trip to Greensboro.

T. E. Richardson, of Mississippi, and J. S. Merritt, of South Boston, Va., were guests of this city yesterday.

Mr. Lon White and daughter, of Raleigh, passed through yesterday evening going to Archdale to visit the family of J. G. Frazier.

Carl Haynes, errand boy at the Enterprise office, who has typhoid fever, is getting along nicely, so says his physician, Dr. Burton.

Mrs. M. F. Jones, of Richmond, Va., mother of Mrs. E. D. Steele and Mrs. Luther Jones of this city, arrived last evening to spend several days with her children.

We are requested to announce that services will be held in the Episcopal church next Friday night at 8:15 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. C. Davis. All are cordially invited to be present.

Bob Slaughter, who has been engaged in business at Richmond for some time, has been elected assistant book keeper at the National bank to fill the vacancy of Jesse Armfield, who is cashier of the new bank at Thomas-ville.

Sam Taylor, of Archdale, who went to Johns Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, for treatment some time ago, passed through last night enroute home. We hear that Mr. Taylor is in a worse condition than before the operation was performed.

We have seen two apples and the like before but never run across such a freak of nature as was handed us by J. L. Sechrest last night. The twins in this case are apples, and instead of being partly joined together on either side, are closely connected together on either side, and in shape resemble a dumb bell.

Dr. J. K. Stockard, of Burlington, who was chief surgeon of the 2nd N. C.
Regiment in the late war, passed through last night on his way to Vancouver barracks, Washington, to report for duty. From there he goes to the Philippines. Several of the boys from here who were in the 2nd Regiment were at the depot when he passed through to shake his hand and wish him luck.

Misses Debbie, Berta, Anny and Hattie Tomlinson, of Archdale, accompanied by their visitors Misses Mabel Tomlinson and Elizabeth Morehead, of Durham, and Miss Virginia Mannay, of Salisbury, came in the city yesterday just as the rain began to descend in torrents and we are told "several drops" fell upon this bevy of loveliness before shelter could be reached.

The south and north bound trains brought a goodly number of friends to the city last night. The trains this morning also brought a good delegation. For the next three or four days visitors from all parts of the country will arrive. By Sunday evening, judging from former occasions, High Point will have a large crowd within her borders. Services began today, a good crowd being present at the first service.

THE CAMPAIGN IN KENTUCKY

Goebel To Have a Warm Fight For the Governorship.

CHAIRMAN JAMES K. JONES

Is Much Improved in Health—Will Return to the United States About First of September.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, August 9.—In addition to the securing of Col. Bryan, it is reported that the Kentucky democrats are making efforts to enlist the co-operation in the campaign for Goebel in several statesmen of national repute.
It is reported that efforts will be made to get Senator Daniel, of Virginia; Tillman, of South Carolina; Bailey, of Texas; Lentz, of Ohio; Ex-Governor Stone, of Missouri; Towne, of Minnesota; and other orators equally well known, to go to Kentucky for the purpose of helping to place Goebel in the governor's chair. The bolt of the Kentucky democrats has apparently only stirred up the friends of the nominee to make superhuman efforts to elect their candidate. The gentlemen mentioned are all orators of the first quality and have a way of making campaign welkins ring. If these national orators can be induced to go to Kentucky and stir up things for Goebel and the ticket, together with the presence of Col. Bryan, it is believed by Kentucky democrats who are in the city that it will do much towards keeping in line many lukewarm gentlemen for the ticket.

In the city last Monday was C. B.
Osgood, of Kentucky, a prominent democrat and a believer in "regularity." He says that the presence of Col. Bryan and other gentlemen of national repute on the stump for Goebel will be worth thousands of votes to the ticket. In spite of the bolt against the nominee and the impression prevailing in most sections outside of Kentucky as to the strength of Goebel, Mr. Osgood stated Monday night that the chances for the success of the ticket are not so dubious after all. He himself believes that Goebel will come out victorious in this campaign, but whether he is elected or not he does not believe there is any doubt as to the success of the remainder of the state ticket. As to the state legislature, which will elect a successor to Senator Lindsay, Mr. Osgood says there is no doubt but the democrats will retain control of both branches of the legislature. Senator Blackburn, he says, has no opposition for election among the democracy, having the support of the friends and opponents of Goebel.

As to national politics, Mr. Osgood says that Kentucky will send a solid delegation to the next convention pledged to Bryan, and that the silver leader will carry Kentucky next year.
He says there is nothing in the talk of opposition to Bryan on account of the part he has taken in favor of Goebel.

Senator Jones, of Arkansas, may return to the United States about the first of September. He is said to be very anxious to return in order to be here for the political campaign this fall. The senator is now said to be at Geneva, Switzerland, and his health is said to be much improved. Since the senator's absence in Europe many letters have been received from him by his friends in this city, in all of which he speaks in a hopeful manner of his restoration to health.

The friends of the senator say that he will not take a prominent part in the campaign this year, but desires to be in the country in order that he may be in a position to give his advice and encouragement in localities where it may be needed. Upon the arrival of the senator in New York city, it is likely that he will come to Washington to spend a few days before proceeding to his home in Arkansas. It is no known just what the intentions of the senator are, but it is doubtful if he makes very many, if any political speeches this year, preferring to save his strength for the campaign next year.

It is said that Miss Darby, who was the other day appointed postmaster at Wilmington, North Carolina, may appoint George Z. French, assistant postmaster. Among North Carolina people in the city, the rumor is not believed. It is said that the Wilmington people would resent the appointment of French to any political office in the State. At the Postoffice Department nothing in regard to the rumor could be obtained. It is the custom usually to allow postmasters to select their own assistants, but in case of a protest, the Department might refuse to sanction the appointment of a person regarded as unfit, as assistant postmaster.

It is said on good authority that of the nine democratic candidates already nominated for the general assembly of Virginia, that eight are pronounced Martin men, and favorable to his re-election. One of the nominees is said to be doubtful, but leaning towards Martin. If this is true, the Tyler men have not succeeded in nominating as yet a single man for the general assembly.

The engagement is announced of Miss Florence Goodwin, of Richmond, Virginia, to Mr. William S. Derby, of Chicago. The prospective bride and her mother have been spending the summer at Newport. The announcement of the engagement will cause much interest in southern circles.
Miss Agnes Vogt, of Wilmington, North Carolina, is at the Metropolitan Hotel.
Mr. B. Newland, of North Carolina is in Washington for a few days.

Idiosyncrasy.

A power is on the earth and in the air, From which the vital spirit shrinks afraid,
And shelters him in nooks of deepest shade,
From the hot stream and from the fiery glare.
Look forth upon the earth—her thousand plants Are smitten; even the dark sun-loving maize Faints in the field beneath the torrid blaze;
The herd beside the shaded fountain pans;
For life is driven from all the landscape brown.
The bird has sought his tree, the snake his den,
The trout floats dead in the hot stream, and men Drop by the sunstroke in the populous town;
As if the Day of fire had dawned, and sent Its deadly breath into the firmament.
—William Cullen Bryant.

TO ROOT OUT THE REBS.

It's war to the knife, says new Secretary Root. A grand move is going to be made against the Filipinos. By the last of October, when the dry season is dated to arrive, the muffled tread of fifty thousand American warriors will be heard on the Philippine shores. The administration predicts a speedy cessation of hostilities on the part of the insurgents thereafter.

There is said to be no friction existing between President McKinley and the new manager of the war department, and the enthusiasm he has shown upon assuming the duties of his office gives some color to the hint recently made that General Otis will be removed, and an able man put at the head of field affairs.

Speaking of the large and increasing number of divorce suits in North Carolina, of which fifteen are enrolled on the Guilford county superior court docket for trial at the next term of court, the Raleigh News and Observer says:

For some years past almost every legislature has let down the bars, adding to the causes for which divorces may be granted. All parties have been alike guilty of this blow at the sanctity of the home and the undermining of faith in the Bible doctrine of divorce.

When the general assembly meets in Raleigh next June, the first work it ought to undertake is to appoint a committee of the ablest lawyers in both bodies to codify the divorce laws of the state and draw bills that would repeal every statute that has allowed the causes for which divorces can be secured.

South Carolina is the only state in the union that has a model divorce law. It has enacted the Bible cause and steadfastly refused to add any other.

The question of the application of the Jim Crow car law to certain trains is to be tested in the courts. Two suits have recently been entered at Raleigh against the Southern Railway for not only a flagrant disregard of the law's spirit but an improper observance of its letter. The Southern seems to have a very determined contempt for the will of the people on this separate accommodation matter, and it is hoped the great system will be taught that, however great it has grown, it is not greater than the law of North Carolina.

The Philippine situation is quite dull. The only thing of any moment that has happened over there in some time was the bombardment of the town of Porte a few days ago. The Nipidian steamed up and let fly her sixty pounders in terrific fury for quite awhile, wrecking several buildings and killing a little child.

Since Mr. Bryan has expressed his determination to do the brave act of stumping the state of Kentucky for Goebel it will be interesting to watch whether or not he takes water.

The trial of Dreyfus proceeds, and the world looks on with sympathy and pity for the man who has experienced sorrows sufficient to crush out the life from ordinary mortals.

The "happy reconciliation" between Russell and Pritchard is portentous.

Year's Output of the Klondike Mines. Vancouver, B. C., August 8.—The steamer Sosale, in Sunday night with 150 passengers, brings in the neighborhood of $3,000,000 in gold. According to the estimate of Canadian Gold Commissioner Ogilvie, the output of the Klondike mines this year will be $40,000,000.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. C. E. Holton will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is every where admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaint and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and sellable.

AT JOHN L.'S OPENING.

Olive Branch of Peace in the Form of High-Prized Cigars.

This is a hitherto unwritten chapter of the story of John Lawrence Sullivan's invasion of New York.

Mr. Sullivan, one time high priest of the art of inducing nepenthe by impact, has, as everybody knows, recently opened a thirst dispensary in Sixth avenue.

To the opening came many men of many minds, with the common purpose of wishing the "big fellow" all sorts of good luck.

In one bery came James Wolf Tone Wakely, sometimes backer and friend of Mr. Sullivan, himself proprietor of a Sixth avenue potation factory; Roland Reed, well known actor; Al Powell and Jimmy Roach.

Mr. Wakely came with an olive branch (metaphorical) in his hand. Not many days ago, so rumor has it, Mr. Sullivan slightly overcame by heat and enthusiasm, had been requested to take sudden departure from the house of public entertainment he esided over by his friend Wakely.

Mr. Wakely wasn't present at the time. His minions delivered the ultimatum, which Mr. Sullivan is said to have accepted more in sorrow than in anger.

So Wakely came, with his friends to Sullivan's opening, bent upon promoting white winged peace and the status quo a priori—as the diplomats have it.

Unfortunately Sullivan wasn't "at home" when Wakely, Reed, Powell and Roach called. He had stepped out to luncheon, his partner declared.

Mr. Wakely expressed regret and then on the instant formulated and put into effect a graceful act of diplomacy.

He stepped to the cigar counter. "Give us the four best cigars in the case," he demanded.

The attendant set out a box of foil-enwrapped Havana perfectors.

"Twenty five cents a piece," he murmured.

"Take a cigar, boys," politely said Mr. Wakely.

Mr. Roach, Mr. Reed and Mr. Powell did so. Then Mr. Wakely chose one for himself.

As he did so he laid a crisp, new $100 bill on the case.

"Ring that up on the register," he commanded, "and tell John when he comes back that Jimmy Wakely called to wish him all sorts of good luck."

"It was the best cigar I ever smoked," said Roland Reed, in describing the incident, "for I'm an imaginative person, and I could see a dollar disappearing every time I took a whiff. Did John L. accept the olive branch? Tears came into his eyes when he examined that cash register and received Wakely's message from the clerk."—N. Y. Telegraph.

THE HANGING OF THE ITALIANS.

Marquis Romano Says It Was a Thing of Particular Atrocity.

Washington August 8.—The state department has received from the Italian authorities here a copy of the report made by the Marquis Romano, secretary of the Italian embassy, on his investigation of the lynching of five Italians in Louisiana. He presents the affair in a serious light and shows that the Italian authorities view the occurrence as one of unusual atrocity. It contends that there were no mitigating circumstances; that Dr. Hodges first drew a weapon, and that the first shot fired by Defatta was in defense of his fallen brother and not a wanton attack.

Describing the affair in detail, the report points out that some time after the first two men were lynched, the mob made a second and then a third visit to the jail, whence they removed and lynched the three other Italians, all of whom, it is contended, were in utter ignorance of the assault on Dr. Hodges. Conceding some extenuating circumstances in the lynching of the two men immediately concerned in Dr. Hodges' killing, Marquis Romano contends that the lynching of the other three was a thing of particular atrocity.

Russia Warns China.

Peking, August 8.—M. De Giers, Russian minister to China, has addressed a note to the Tsung-Li-Yamen conveying warning that an alliance between China and Japan would greatly offend Russia, and that the consequences of such an agreement would be most serious to China.

"Our baby was sick for a month with severe cough and catarrhal fever. Although we tried many remedies she kept getting worse until we used One Minute Cough Cure—it relieved at once and cured her in a few days."—B. L. Nance, Prin. High School, Bluffdale, Texas. Howard Gardner.

Beats The Klondike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cts. and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

ZANGWILL SEES NIAGARA.

His Impressions are Given Through Peloni.

The impressions of Mr. Zangwill upon seeing Niagara Falls are thus given through Peloni, a quaint adventurer and regenerator of Israel, in the story called "Noah's Ark," a feature of the New Lippincott's. While the little monument was building and the men were coming to and fro in boats, Peloni made friends with the Indians, the smoke-wreaths of whose lodges hovered across the river, and he picked up a little of their language. Also he explored his island, drawn by the crescendo roar of Niagara. It was at Burnt Island Bay that he had his first, if distant, view of the falls themselves. The rapids, gurgling and plunging with foam and swirl and eddy, quickened his blood, but the cataracts disappointed him, after that rainbow glimpse of the upper spray, and it was not till he got himself landed on the Canadian shore and saw the monstrous rush of the vast tameless flood toward the great leap that he felt the presence and the power that were to be with him for the balance of his days. The bend of the Horse-Shoe was hidden by a white spray mountain that rose above its topmost waters, as they hurried themselves from green solidity to creamy mists. As he looked, lo! the enchanting rainbows twinkled again, and he had a sense as of the smile of God, of the love of that awful unfathomable Being, eternally persistent, while the generations rise and fall like vapor-spray. The tide was low, and, drawn by an irresistible fascination, he ventured down among the rocks near the foot of the fall. But a tingling storm of spray smote him half blind and wholly breathless, and all he could see was a monstrous misty Brocken-spirit upreared, and in his ears were a thousand thunders. A wild elemental passion swelled and lifted him. Yes, force, force was the secret of things; the vast primeval energies that sent the stars shining and the seas roaring. (Force, Life, Strength, that was what Israel needed. It has grown anaemic, slouching along its airless Judengassen. Oh, to fight, to fight, like the warriors who went out against the Greeks, who defended the Holy City against the Romans, "For the Lord is a Man of War." And he shouted the cry of David, "Blessed be the Lord, my Rock, who teacheth my hands to war and my fingers to fight." But he stopped, smitten by an ironic memory. This very blessing was uttered every Sabbath twilight, in every Ghetto by every bloodless worshipper, to a melancholy, despairing melody in the lightless dusk of the synagogues.

No Moustaches in Alaska.

Men exposed to the rigors of the Alaskan winters never wear moustaches. They wear full beards to protect the throat and face, but keep the upper lip clean shaven. The moisture from the breath coagulates so quickly that a moustache becomes embedded in a solid cake of ice, and the face is frozen in a short time.

"This settles my hash," remarked the dyspeptic boarder as he swallowed an after-dinner pill.

Crippled by Rheumatism.

Those who have Rheumatism find themselves growing steadily worse all the while. One reason of this is that the remedies prescribed by the doctors contain mercury and potash, which ultimately intensify the disease by causing the joints to swell and stiffen, producing a severe aching of the bones. S. S. S. has been curing Rheumatism for twenty years—even the worst cases which seemed almost incurable.

Capt. O. K. Hughes, the popular railroad conductor, of Chicago, who had been crippled by Rheumatism which confined him to his bed for several months, writes that there is only one cure for that painful disease. He says: "I was a great sufferer from muscular Rheumatism for two years. I could get no permanent relief from any medicine prescribed by my physician. I took about a dozen bottles of your S. S. S., and ever since (many months) I am sure that your medicine cured me and I would recommend it to any one suffering from any blood disease."

Everybody knows that Rheumatism is a diseased state of the blood, and that a blood remedy is the only proper treatment, but a remedy containing potash and mercury only aggravates the trouble.

S.S.S. For The Blood

being Purely Vegetable, goes direct to the very cause of the disease and a permanent cure always results. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no potash, mercury or other dangerous minerals.

MR. BRYAN'S COURAGE.

His Course Has Won for Him Admiration, Even From His Enemies.

Mr. William J. Bryan has determined to enter the Kentucky campaign and make speeches in the interest of Goebel's candidacy. He made this statement in answer to a direct question from a reporter, but when further questioned as to why he would take the stump for Goebel he said that that was a matter which he would not discuss.

We believe that we understood Mr. Bryan's reason, and we honor him for the stand that he has taken. It was given out last week that the leaders of the anti-Goebel movement had served notice on him that he must not interfere in Kentucky politics this year, and that if he should enter the State and make speeches for Goebel, they would see to it that an anti-Bryan campaign was sent from Kentucky to the National Democratic Convention next year. Here was a distinct threat, and Mr. Bryan's courage was put to the test. He had already written a letter advising the Democrats of Kentucky to support Goebel, the regular nominee, and under the threat of the bolting Democrats in Kentucky the question was raised as to whether or not he had the courage of his convictions. Mr. Bryan was not slow in reaching a decision. He did not propose to retreat under fire. He had already endorsed Goebel by letter and he was not to be driven by threat away from the position he had taken.

We honor a brave man wherever we find him. Especially do we honor a brave man in politics. We say nothing in this connection of the political situation in Kentucky. We say nothing of the methods by which Goebel received his nomination. We say nothing of the subject under discussion. Mr. Bryan had decided that it was the duty of Kentucky Democrats to support Goebel, had decided that it was his duty to throw the weight of his influence in behalf of the regular nominee, and it was a reflection on his courage and his integrity for the bolters to have attempted to intimidate him by making a threat against his candidacy for the Presidency. Mr. Bryan very promptly resented the imputation and showed himself to be a man of courage, for which his opponents as well as his friends will honor him.

The Kentucky bolters have made a blunder. They have professed admiration for Mr. Bryan and have proclaimed themselves to be loyal to his candidacy. Yet they said to him that unless he should show himself to be a political trimmer and a poltroon, they would attempt to knife him. In so doing they have made a sorry spectacle of themselves and have given Mr. Bryan the opportunity to show the stuff of which he is made. The incident is a distinct loss for the bolters and a distinct gain for Mr. Bryan.—Richmond Times.

Is It Right for an Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?

From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this remedy in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

De Tanque—"You say that you ordered a champagne cocktail on Tuesday. Did he take exception?" Guzzler—"I know it was some kind of a fancy drink, but I don't think that's what he called it."

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures dyspepsia because its ingredients are such that it can't help doing so. "The public can rely upon it as a master remedy for all disorders arising from imperfect digestion."—James M. Thomas, M. D.; in American Journal of Health, N. Y.; Howard Gardner.

ENGLISH FIRMS CONTROL.

Americans Already at a Disadvantage in Cuba and Porto Rico.

Chicago, August 8.—More than $10,000,000 of English capital has been invested in Cuban tobacco plantations. English firms control the Cuban tobacco market, and the American importers of Havana will have hereafter to look to the English for their goods.

James Grantham, of London, a representative of English capitalists, who was in Chicago on his way to the Pacific coast, is authority for this statement. He has been some time in Cuba and has just returned from there. Comparatively recent investments of English capital in Cuba and Porto Rico are estimated by him at about $30,000,000.

He said: "It is only a matter of a few years till English capital will absolutely control the Cuban and Porto Rican commercial centers. The Cubans prefer to trade with the English to any other nationality, because they speak Spanish and the English houses grant from sixty to ninety days' time on transactions and also show samples of goods. American houses, as a rule, demand at least part payment in advance."

WINE OF CARDUI

HEALTHY OLD AGE.

LARUS, BENTON CO. ARK., Aug. 4.

I am 48 years old and have been suffering with Change of Life. I had flooding spells so bad that none thought I could live. My husband got me Wine of Cardui and it saved my life. I am like another person since taking it.

MRS. E. B. TOWNSEND.

It is the devout wish of nearly all people to live to a ripe old age. None of us want to die young. This universal desire can be realized if care be taken of the health in early and middle life. A little precaution then will add many years to our existence. Death can be kept away a long time. Happy, healthy old age will be the lot of the woman who promptly corrects the ailments which afflict her sex. In youth, Wine of Cardui will take the female child safely over the dividing line between girlhood and womanhood. As a wife she needs it to help her through the trials of pregnancy and childbirth with as little discomfort as possible. At the Change of Life it will help her over the dangerous place that appears in her pathway between 40 and 50. Then will come many years of truly blissful existence. She will grow old slowly and gracefully. To the last she will preserve that charm and beauty which are always characteristic of perfectly healthy grandmothers. It is for women alone to decide whether they will be healthy or sick. The remedy for their sickness is close at hand.

A LONG RECORD.

'Squire Pritchett's Birthday Calls to Mind his Term of Office.

Forty years without an intermission is a long time for one man to hold office. 'Squire J. A. Pritchett, of this city, who was 73 years old yesterday, has been a justice of the peace about forty years and during that time has been out of office only one day, and that day was on Sunday, his term having expired on Saturday night and he was appointed again on Monday morning. That was several years ago.

Mr. Pritchett was born in this city, and has lived here all his life—73 years. Uncle Bob Sloan and himself are the only two living members of the first fire department organized here. It is interesting to hear a description of the fire-fighting apparatus in use then and compare it with what is in use now. For one thing, instead of squirting water through several hundred feet of hose, leather buckets were used to convey it to and from the fire, and the buckets were usually passed from hand to hand along a long line of men.

SOCIAL AT DR. GREGORY'S.

Pleasant Party Tendered in Honor of Young Lady Visitors.

Dr. and Mrs. R. K. Gregory gave a party to a number of young friends at their home on North Greene street last evening, complimentary to Misses Grizzelle Mullin, of Petersburg, Va., and Lucy Harvey, of Kingston, two charming young ladies who have been visiting them for several days. The affair was one of the most delightful of the season and was voted a decided success by all present. Among the most enjoyable games played was an auction sale of the young lady guests. The young men made comparatively liberal bids, though, of course the fair jewels brought nothing like their value.

At 10 o'clock delicious refreshments were served, bountifully, and at 11:30 the guests departed.
